Course Format

This course is fully in-person but may be moved online at a future date, in response to COVID-19 safety requirements. Students will also have access to PowerPoint presentations from class.

- Students are expected to attend classes, whether in person or virtual.
- If the class moves online:
 - Virtual class will be asynchronous (at your own pace).
 - Virtual attendance is defined as: logging in to Blackboard, reading through the class notes for the day and assigned reading, watching the recorded lecture, and completing assignments and/or assigned quizzes or exams by the assigned due date.
- You are not required to wear a face mask but it is highly recommended.
- The professor will work individually with students who need access to a virtual option, if the need arises due the Covid-19.

If the student does not communicate with the professor or login to Blackboard for 3 consecutive weeks, the student risks being dropped from the course.

Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend class and to be on time. The Attendance portion (10%) of the final grade average will be determined by the percentage of classes actively attended by the student.

This figure is arrived at by dividing the number of classes actively attended by the number of total class meetings. Each student will be allowed two (2) unexcused absences for which there will be no penalty.

Attendance is recorded at the beginning of class. Students will attend the section in which they are registered.

If the student does not communicate with the professor or attend class for 3 consecutive weeks, the student risks being dropped from the course.

Tardiness: Late students will be marked tardy. Three tardies will equal one unexcused absence. If the student is more than 15 minutes late to class, the student will be marked absent for the day.

Excused Absences: An excused absence is defined as an absence due to illness, an official trip or activity authorized by the college, or family emergency. The student must notify the instructor of the absence prior to the start of class and must provide documentation in the form of a doctor's note or release form from the college. In the case of illness, if no doctor's note is presented and the instructor is not notified before class, the absence will be unexcused.

Please see statement on Covid-19

If a student stops coming to class, the instructor will report it to the Office of Student Services as specified above. After 6 unexcused absences, the student risks being dropped from the class. It is the student's responsibility to drop the class if the need arises.

The student is responsible for obtaining any notes or assignments missed due to absence or tardiness from other classmates or from Blackboard, except in the case of an excused absence. Do not email the instructor asking what was missed in class. The instructor will not answer these emails.
