COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Title: MUSP 2232 – Applied Commercial Music: Advanced Banjo

Private Music Lessons in the Commercial Music Department –

Private instruction in musical instruments/voice is open to all South Plains College students, but those seeking the A.A.A. Degree, or Certificate in Commercial Music, may be subject to additional departmental requirements (see Barrier Exams I & II, and Capstone Experience – below).

MUSP 2232 –Applied Commercial Music: Advanced Banjo

South Plains College Improves Each Student’s Life

I. General Course Information:

- A. Description: Private instruction in Advanced Banjo with goals related to commercial music.

Note: The student will have one hour of private instruction per week during which time the instructor will guide and monitor the student’s daily practice. The remaining 3.0 lab hours per week are guided study under the supervision of the instructor, and will be specific to the particular instrument or voice.

- B. Course Learning Outcomes: Demonstrate proficiency in commercial music repertoire and technique; develop a professional disciplined approach to performance skills; and present a juried performance for faculty.

The student will demonstrate proficiency in banjo technique, theory, notation, ear training, and repertoire; develop a disciplined professional approach to performance skills; and perform a mid-term and final exam (or jury – see below).

- C. Course Competencies: Departmental Competency Standards have been developed as guidelines for those seeking the A.A.A. Degree or Certificate in Commercial Music. However, these are a technical “base-line” only and may not constitute total compliance with class assignments.

Juries –A jury is a cumulative final exam over the course of study. The instructor shall determine the membership of the jury.

- D. Academic Integrity: It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension. Students should refer to the SPC General Catalog, pg. 22-23; regarding consequences for cheating and plagiarism (see “Academic Integrity” as well as “Student Conduct” sections).

- E. SCANS COMPETENCIES: C – 1, 3, 5, 6, 7, 9, 15, 18, 19

FOUNDATION SKILLS: F – 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16

- F. Verification of Workplace Competencies: Successful completion of this course will equip the student with many of the skills necessary to complete the Capstone Experience (presented at the end of the second semester of study for certificate candidates and at the end of the fourth semester of study for degree candidates).

Capstone Experience: Students seeking the A.A.A. Degree or Certificate in Commercial Music must satisfactorily complete specific requirements 1] As a performer in a full-length televised public performance (music festival), and 2] by passing all applicable Barrier Exams.

These festivals occur twice a year (once at the completion of the fall and spring semesters).

Barrier Exam I: Students seeking the Certificate in Commercial Music must pass a test of minimum performance standards administered by a qualified panel of faculty members. This test is arranged by appointment with the department.

Barrier Exam II: Students seeking the A.A.A. Degree in Commercial Music must pass a test of minimum advanced performance standards administered by a qualified panel of faculty members. This test is arranged by appointment with the department.

Standards for the Barrier Exams shall be determined and published by the faculty. In all cases, the standards under which a student matriculates will remain in force, unless the student chooses to accept the current standard instead.

II. Specific Course/Instructor Requirements:

- A. The instructor will select textbook and other materials appropriate texts and materials.
- B. Attendance Policy: After missing three unexcused lessons, the student’s grade will be lowered one letter grade for each subsequent absence. The instructor will determine the validity (with respect to this course) of each excuse.

- C. Lab hours may consist of rehearsals, concerts and workshops and other activities deemed appropriate by the instructor. Teachers may substitute “directed” study activities for these events for students who cannot attend on-campus events. Attendance forms and credit descriptions may be acquired from your instructor.
- D. Assignment Policy: Each lesson will begin with a review of the material assigned at the previous lesson. Each lesson will conclude with a brief summary of the new material and the assignment for the next lesson. A daily numerical grade will be assigned by the instructor based on his evaluation of the student’s accomplishment of the assigned goals. Also, see [E.] below.

Students enrolled in Commercial Music Ensembles are required to take private instrument/voice lessons (waiver subject to the discretion of the department head). This enables the student to gain advantage from the teacher’s ensemble experience.

- E. Grading Policy/Procedure: The final grade will be constituted as follows:

- An average of daily grades. 30%
- An average of lab hour credits 10%
- A midterm exam 30%
- A final exam or jury 30%

The instructor may excuse absences, but assignments will not be accepted late. Generally, letter grades are assigned as follows: A: 90-100, B: 80-89, C: 70-79, D: 60-69, F: Below 60.

- F. Special Requirements: There are no specific entry-level standards for this course. All private lesson students will be working toward specific competencies outlined in the course of study designed by the teacher for their specific level of ability. However, students working toward the A.A.A. Degree or Certificate in Commercial Music must pass the required departmental Barrier Exam(s) – see above. Students should seek advice from instructors as to their status with respect to these tests.
- G. Cell phones are prohibited in the classroom. One class disruption will be allowed. After that, a student whose phone rings or who is caught texting will receive a 0 for the day and be asked to remove themselves from class.
- H. Should a epidemic arise, such as swine flu, any student feeling ill or running a fever of 99 or above is prohibited from attending class until 24 hours after the fever has been absent. The instructor will make every attempt to provide online work or extra bookwork to make up for the absence.

III. Course Outline:

Outline by Topic:

The depth of exploration into each area will be determined by the instructor, based on the student’s individual level of ability, the student’s expressed musical goals, and the specific requirements shown on the attached Voice Competency list.

Technique: systematic study of best practices pertaining to the instrument or voice

Theory: Knowledge of theoretical concepts as they apply to the instrument or voice.

Notation: Reading standard musical notation and recognizing and understanding the Nashville numbering system and standard chord symbols.

Ear Training: Guidance toward greater aural skills in recognizing ensemble textures and melodic and harmonic pitches.

Improvisation: Development and application of skills.

Repertoire: Demonstrate the ability to perform prepared pieces in a nearly perfect manner commensurate with skill level.

Outline by Week:

Week 1 – Assess the student’s current competency and experience.

Weeks 2 – 6 – Follow course outline as indicated above. Give special emphasis to areas of special interest and/or difficulty to student. Prepare for upcoming exam or jury.

Week 7 – Perform midterm exam.

Weeks 8 – 15 – Follow similar curriculum to weeks 2-6

Week 16 – Perform jury

IV. Accommodations

South Plains College strives to accommodate the individual needs of all students in order to enhance their opportunities for success in the context of a comprehensive community college setting. It is the policy of South Plains College to offer all educational and employment opportunities without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, gender, disability or age (SPC Equal Opportunity Policy—General Catalog).

V. Disabilities

Disabilities Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office. For more information, call or visit the Disability Services Office at Levelland (Student Health & Wellness Office) 806-716-2577, Reese Center (Building 8) 806-716-4675, or Plainview Center (Main Office) 806-716-4302 or 806-296-9611.

VI. Diversity

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

VII. Injury Or Illness Addendum

In the event that you are injured or are ill, creating a situation where you cannot perform for an extended period, it is agreed that the student will drop this course if the instructor deems it appropriate.

TexBook Program: This course is in the SPC TexBook program, so you do not need to purchase a textbook or access code for this course.

- What is TexBook? The required textbook/digital content for this course is available to you in Blackboard from the first day of class. The fee for the textbook/digital content is the lowest price available from the publisher and bookstore and is included in your tuition/fee payment.

- How do I access my TexBook? Your course material is in your Blackboard course from the first day of class. Access to your course material is provided either by RedShelf or other links inside your Blackboard course. RedShelf (and many publisher's) ebook features include the ability to hear the text read aloud, highlight, take notes, create flash cards, see word definitions, build study guides, print select pages, and download up to 20% of the book for offline access.

- Help with TexBook issues and support: check with your professor and/or contact

<https://solve.redshelf.com/hc/en-us/requests/new>

- Opting out of TexBook: Participating in TexBook is not mandatory, and you can choose to opt-out.

However; by opting-out you will lose access to the course [textbook/digital content] and competitive pricing, and you will need to purchase the required course material on your own. If you drop the class or opt-out before the opt-out deadline, the TexBook charge will be automatically refunded to your SPC account. The opt-out deadline for Fall and Spring is the twelfth class day. The opt-out deadline for shorter terms varies between the second and third class day.

*Please consult with your professor before deciding to opt-out.

If you still feel that you should purchase the course textbook/materials on your own, send an opt-out email to tfewell4texasbookcompany@gmail.com. Include your first name, last name, student ID number, and the course you are opting out of. Once you have been opted-out, you will receive a confirmation email. If you need assistance with the process, contact the SPC Bookstore:
