=====

I. GENERAL COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. Course Description: The methods of live performance for the modern band or artist.

B. End-of-Course Outcomes: Demonstrate the concepts and skills used in live performance: specifically developing a "Vision", creating "Moments", constructing a set list, understanding audience psychology, and embodying authority. Skills include: the fundamentals of using the stage to focus attention and unify visual and musical elements; "owning" the performance space and its tools; and developing onstage roles.

C. Academic Integrity: Please refer to the College Catalog (page 23).

D. SCANS and Foundation Skills. This course covers SCANS occupational Competencies C1-20 and Foundation Skills F1-17

E. Verification of Workplace Competencies: Successful completion of this course will equip the student with many of the skills necessary to complete part of the capstone experience presented at the end of the second semester of study for certificate candidates and at the end of the fourth semester of study for degree candidates.

II. SPECIFIC COURSE/INSTRUCTOR REQUIREMENTS

A. Textbooks and other materials: Tom Jackson's Live Music Method

B. Attendance/Tardy Policy: See page 20 in the College Catalog. Also, due to the nature of this class, it is important that students be present at the beginning of each class period. Therefore, anyone arriving after attendance has been taken will be counted absent for that class period. More than three absences will result in the lowering of the final grade by at least one letter. A student will be dropped from the class with a "F" or an "X" (at teacher's discretion) once they've accumulated six absences.

C. Assignment Policy: Regular class assignments will be given out and are expected to be completed and turned in at the specified times. Grades will be recorded for all work turned in.

Lab Time. You are required to visit the lab for certain projects assigned by the instructor. Lab assignments will be averaged together as your Lab Grade for the semester.

Students absent the day an assignment is given are still responsible for the assignment and must contact the instructor following an absence to find out what they missed during the absence.

D. Grading Policy/Procedure:

-Reading Assignment will count for 10% of your overall grade

-Midterm performance will count for 20% of your overall grade.

-Tests will count for 40%.

-Final Performance will count for 20

-The "Written Final" will count for 10% of your overall grade.

-Absences will also figure into the grade if a student has missed more than three classes (see letter "B" above).

E. Special requirements: None.

F. Appropriate class behavior: I like for this to be an informal class yet certain guidelines must be observed: improper language will not be tolerated. The use of cell phones (TAKING CALLS OR TEXTING) or surfing of the internet when you're supposed to be doing class work can result in a student being dropped from the class with an F, no exceptions!!!!

ACCOMMODATIONS: See the "Equal Opportunity" statement in the South Plains College Catalog, (page 3) for specific details on this subject.

V. 4.1.1.1. Diversity Statement:

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

4.1.1.2. Disabilities Statement:
